The motion to file a reply to defendants' answers is GRANTED.

The Court orders that the motion to remand is DENIED. This Court could not determine whether a remand would be justified because appellant failed to properly support her motion with a copy of the proposed amended complaint. MCR 2.116(I)(5) and MCR 7.211(C)(1)(a). Even if appellant had properly supported her motion, a remand is unnecessary because the Grand Traverse Circuit Court has already rendered a decision on the issue. MCR 7.211(C)(1)(a)(i).
